

Whistleblower Protection Policy

The Texas Alliance of Black School Educators requires directors, officers and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the Texas Alliance of Black School Educators, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

Reporting Responsibility

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns internally so that Texas Alliance of Black School Educators can address and correct inappropriate conduct and actions. It is the responsibility of all board members, officers, employees and volunteers to report concerns about violations of Texas Alliance of Black School Educators' code of ethics or suspected violations of law or regulations that govern Texas Alliance of Black School Educators' operations. Applicable to all local, state, and federal guidelines and laws.

No Retaliation

It is contrary to the values of Texas Alliance of Black School Educators for anyone to retaliate against any board member, officer, employee or volunteer who in good faith reports an ethics violation, or a suspected violation of law, such as a complaint of discrimination, or suspected fraud, or suspected violation of any regulation governing the operations of Texas Alliance of Black School Educators. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

Reporting Procedure

Texas Alliance of Black School Educators has an open-door policy and suggests that employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with their supervisor. If you are not comfortable speaking with your supervisor or you are not satisfied with your supervisor's response, you are encouraged to speak with Executive Director or an executive board member. Supervisors and managers are required to report complaints or concerns about suspected ethical and legal violations in writing to the Texas Alliance of Black School Educators' Executive Director ["Compliance Officer"] and an executive board member, who has the responsibility to Texas Alliance of Black School Educators (TABSE)
