Commissions

TASBE Strategic Plan Call to Action: The Texas Alliance of Black School Educators will bolster a force for transformation through equity, efficacy, and policy to ensure unobstructed opportunities for students of African descent and the educators who serve them.

The Texas Alliance of Black School Educators shall include various commissions, each of which shall be organized for the purpose of affording meaningful dialogue and participation of members in order to enhance the attainment of the goals of the organization.

Campus Based Leadership Dr. Dana Arreola	Central Office Dr. Mario Layne	Faith Based Cornelius Anderson
Governance Ty G. Jones	Higher Ed and Research Dr. Cherry Gooden	Parent Dr. Darwin Spiller
Retired Educator John Washington	Superintendent Dr. Robert Bostic	Teacher Derica Turner
Chair Dr. Darwin Spiller	Co-Chair Dr. Dana Arreola	Secretary William Ealy

Each TABSE member shall participate in the commission of his/her choice. Members are encouraged to select the commission, which parallels their job functions. Selection of a commission shall be made upon establishing or renewing membership. No member shall hold membership in more than one commission at any time.

Alamo Area ABSE	Austin Area ABSE	Brazos Valley ABSE
CENTEX AABSE	Ft Worth Area ABSE	Garland ABSE
Greater Austin AABSE	Houston Area ABSE	Lamar University ABSE
North East Texas AABSE	Plano Area ABSE	Richardson Area ABSE
Southwest DC ABSE	Tyler Area ABSE

Local Affiliates are encouraged to identify a member of their affiliate to serve as a liaison to the TABSE Commission Chairs. The Commission Chairs will communicate information to the affiliate liaison who will provide updates during affiliate board meetings

Local Affiliates are encouraged to create committees that align to the TABSE 9 Commissions to serve as the “boots on the ground” soldiers to advance the work at the state level. Local affiliates are encouraged to keep evidence and artifacts connected to the TABSE 9 Commissions